

The Second Semester Exam 2016/2017

Name:

Second Exam

9th grade

1- Read the text and answer the questions: (8 marks)

Today, the Red Crescent is very important in responding to disaster such as earthquakes or fires, as well as providing aid to developing countries. A key principle of the organization when providing this aid is neutrality. Red Crescent volunteers work to prevent suffering for everyone - regardless of nationality, race, religion or gender.

a- What is the most important objective that the Red Crescent has which distinguishes it from other organizations?

b- What qualities do you think one should have to volunteer with the Red Crescent?

2-Match the words with their meanings. ( 10 marks )

1.Miser

a. Things belonging to a person

2. Aid

b. A terrible event that causes great damage

3.Ceremony

c. Help, assistance or support

4.Possessions

d. A formal celebration of a particular event

5.Disaster

e. Someone who has a lot of money but spends too little

3. Fill in the gaps with the appropriate quantity word or expression:(8 marks )

1. There aren't ..... trees in the garden. (much / many)
2. She hasn't got ..... friends. (some / any)
3. Don't waste ..... time watching TV. (much / many)
4. I haven't read ..... books. (many / much)

4- Use How much and How many to complete these questions.(14 marks)

1. .... books a month (read)?

---

2. .... chocolate a week (eat)?

---

3. .... pizzas a month (have)?

4. .... money on petrol a month (spend)?

---

5. .... time learning English a week (spend)?

---

6. .... concerts a year (go to)?

---

7. .... tea every day (drink)?

---